

Only westerners say that no one chooses their parents.
Gorsky had just read something about Buddhists and rebirth in a magazine.
According to the article the vast majority of people around the world - mostly those in Asia - are convinced that the souls of the dead choose their parents and incarnate,
while mom and dad have sex.

Gorsky touched her abdomen, where the small Gorsky was growing.

Horrifying! There is a dead man in my belly?
And a one who has seen me naked?
Naked with that jerk, who doesn't even know how to put on a condom properly!

And whoever takes into consideration my opinion?
What if inside me the little Hitler is now gathering strength?
What if this was a pedophile?
But ... he may have been Mozart, right?
How quickly do souls come back to earth?
Can it be my grandmother?

Why don't they tell us these things in school?

I feel ... I feel ... like ...

Gorsky went to the sink feeling very sick.

I feel ... as though I am the Great Mother Goddess .... I ....

I can
I can give birth to ... anything.
